5. Your name and email should appear. Select your user account pfrom the results and press the OK button to continue.

6. With your documents set on the machine and the account selected, press the START button to begin scanning. Your email will be sent automatically.